

"Satellite 'Drome" in Training Scheme

F.T.S. MOTH FLIGHT trainees are using a satellite landing ground at Little River, to which they fly from Point Cook for exercises under advanced landing ground conditions including "forced-landing" practice. Here, mess parade is in progress. A trainee can be seen in background taxiing up to the vicinity of the mobile cooker.

1951