

2 R.A.A.F. trainees killed in plane crash

MELBOURNE, Saturday. — Two R.A.A.F. trainees were killed when their machine crashed near Deniliquin (N.S.W.) yesterday.

They were: Sergt. F. L. Cunningham, of Artarmon, Sydney, and Leading-Aircraftman L. M. Anderson, of Albert Park, Melbourne.

The men were attempting a forced landing when the machine stalled and spun.

It burst into flames and was totally destroyed.
