

Pilot, Army Officer Killed In Air Crash

MELBOURNE, Monday.—An R.A.A.F. pilot and an Army officer were killed instantly on Friday when an aircraft on an Air-Army co-operation training flight crashed five miles from Bungendore (N.S.W.).

Those killed were:—

Pilot-Officer Frederick William Powell, 24, single.
Captain William John McCutcheon, 25, married, of Cowley, via Innisfail.
The aircraft was destroyed. The cause of the accident is obscure.

DAILY TELEGRAPH

3.3.42

TWO KILLED IN CRASH AT BUNGENDORE

MELBOURNE, Monday.—When an aircraft on a training flight crashed five miles from Bungendore, N.S.W., on Friday, an R.A.A.F. pilot and an Army officer were killed. They were Pilot-Officer Frederick William Powell, 24, single, and Captain William John McCutcheon (Q39029), 25, married.

Pilot-Officer Powell had a civil pilot's A licence before enlisting at Sydney last April. He received his R.A.A.F. training at Lindfield, Mascot, and Wagga, and was commissioned as a pilot-officer last December.

Captain McCutcheon was in civil life a cane farmer at Cowley, via Innisfail, Queensland.

SYDNEY MORNING HERALD

3.3.42