

Young Airman Killed
During Gunnery Trial

WHILE practising air-to-ground gunnery on a solo training flight yesterday, L.A.C. Roy Neil Wallace (19), single, of Bendigo, was killed when an aircraft from an R.A.A.F. station in N.S.W. crashed at Big Springs and was destroyed.

The cause of the accident is obscure.

L.A.C. Wallace, who was born at Bendigo, was educated at the Junior Technical School. He was a clerk before enlisting in Melbourne in September, 1941.
