

'BLACK CAT' TUNING UP IN NORTH!

ABOVE: A R.A.A.F. Catalina 'flying boat,' one of the famous 'Black Cats,' taxi-ing in the harbour of its northern base while a R.A.A.F. fitter checks an engine. These aircraft have been laying mines off the coast of China. RIGHT: R.A.A.F. Liberator crews receive last-minute advice on targets from an A.I.F. liaison officer, before taking off to bomb Borneo.
