

Cadet John Charles Fletcher, 19, of Woolwich, a member of the Citizen Air Force, was killed yesterday when a R.A.A.F. Avro-Anson bomber aircraft, which he was taking on a height test, fell to pieces in mid-air while flying over Windsor. The wreckage (above) was flung over a wide area, the main portion crashing on the bank of South Creek, McGrath's Hill.

