

AIR FORCE MACHINES RIDE ON THE CREST OF THE CLOUDS

across billowy white clouds, 10,000ft. above the city, Royal Australian Air Force Avro Anson bombers rehearsed yesterday for the air pageant to-day at a very large crowd. Senior officers who witnessed the rehearsal are enthusiastic about the prospects for the thrilling events which will take place to-day. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the display, which is expected to

PAGEANT PLANES THRILL FLEMINGTON CROWD

AUSTRALIA'S GREATEST AIR PAGEANT.
—A big crowd flocked to Flemington Racecourse today to watch the long-awaited R.A.A.F. aerial pageant. Above: Avro Anson bombers in formation over the racecourse.

A4-

UNUSUAL FUNCTION
for the "straight six" at Flemington Racecourse.
—A section of the crowd watching planes using the straight as a landing ground during the R.A.A.F. air pageant today.

9-4-38: HERALD