

R.A.A.F. MAN KILLED IN AIR CRASH

MELBOURNE, Wednesday.—While on a night flying exercise an R.A.A.F. training aircraft crashed near Mallala, South Australia, about 10 o'clock on Monday night.

L.A.C. Patrick John Brady was killed, and the aircraft was destroyed. Brady, who was aged 24, and unmarried, was born at Carcoar, New South Wales, and enlisted in the R.A.A.F. in August last year.

In civil life he had been an insurance representative, a cadet engineer, and a newspaper reporter.
