

Two Believed Dead In Crash

NEWCASTLE, Thursday. — R.A.A.F. personnel, police and civilians are continuing the search today for the bodies of two airmen believed to have been killed when a plane crashed into the sea at Cemetery Point, near Nelson's Bay, yesterday.

THE plane, which was on a training flight from Williamstown aerodrome, crashed into the sea 300 yards from the shore. There was an explosion when it hit the water.

20.9.45