

A FLIGHT OF R.A.F. AVRO CADET training planes taking off the aerodrome at Point Cook in formation. Cadets gain experience at handling these machines before they are put at the controls of war planes.

NEW TRAINING PLANES of the R.A.A.F. were flown at Point Cook yesterday. These are Avro Cadets, fast, easily controlled, and particularly suitable for instruction and aerobatics.

A6-20

