

"Miraculous Escape"

Its fuselage ripped wide open when it crashed into the mast of the collier Hexham Bank off Swansea yesterday, this R.A.A.F. Dakota managed to land safely at Williamtown, with wires trailing through the gaping tear. Hexham Bank's first mate, Mr. J. T. Turner, described the plane's escape as "miraculous."

● Picture shows the deflated rear tyre punctured in the collision.