

Fit for a Queen

During Her Majesty the Queen's forthcoming tour of Australia, she will travel in a Dakota which has been specially modified for the occasion by the Royal Australian Air Force.

Above, the R.A.A.F. crew of the Royal Dakota, comprising, left to right, captain, Sqn. Ldr. J. E. Cornish, A.F.C.; hostess, Nursing Sister Gay Bury; navigator, Sqn. Ldr. C. W. Brackenridge; signaller, Flt. Lt. T. C. McGrath; and co-pilot, Plt. Off. J. R. Newson. Right, the hostess, Nursing Sister Bury, has seen service in Korea. Below, left and right, the interior of the Dakota is finished in brown and cream.

