

SEVEN KILLED IN BOMBER CRASH

MELBOURNE, Monday.—Seven R.A.A.F. men, all Victorians, were killed when a bomber crashed four miles north-west of Bairnsdale aerodrome on Friday afternoon.

They were: Flying-Officer Robert Murray Buchanan, of Woodglan; Flying-Officer Kenneth James Hovenden, of Bendigo; Flight-Sergeant Walter James Ellen, of Myrtleford; Flight-Sergeant Robert Thomas Thompson, of Coburg; Flight-Sergeant Colin Arthur Lee Haslam, of Cohuna; Corporal James Poppie Warren, of Thornbury; and L.A.C. Edward Gilbert Willett, of Montmorency.

SYDNEY MORNING HERALD
12.12.44

(19)